

FORD INTEREST ADVANTAGE

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, the U.S. government has passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which requires banks, including the Ford Interest Advantage processing agent bank, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons who engage in certain transactions with or through a bank. This means that, in order for us to open a Ford Interest Advantage for you, we will need to collect the information solicited on this application form for ALL PERSONS listed on the note.

More about Ford Interest Advantage

Your investment in Ford Interest Advantage is an investment in an unsecured debt security of Ford Motor Credit Company, LLC (Ford Credit), and only assets of Ford Credit are available for payment of principal and interest on those securities. You can learn more about Ford Credit's financial results by reading the annual, quarterly and special reports and other information Ford Credit files with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). You may read and copy any document Ford Credit files at the SEC's public reference room at 450 Fifth Street, NW, Washington, DC 20549. Please call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information on the public reference room. Ford Credit's SEC filings are also available to you at the SEC's website at sec.gov.

Ford Interest Advantage is an unsecured debt obligation of Ford Credit. It is not a money market mutual fund, a diversified investment nor a bank account and is not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other insurance. Since all funds are invested in the security of a single issuer (Ford Credit), investors will not have the diversification offered by money market mutual funds or the protection, including quality standards, provided by the Investment Company Act of 1940. Ford Interest Advantage is offered only by prospectus.

An investment in Ford Interest Advantage Notes involves certain risks. In consultation with your own financial and legal advisers, you should carefully consider, among other matters, the risk factors discussed in the prospectus and in Ford Credit's annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC before deciding whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for you. Notes are not an appropriate investment for you if you do not understand the terms of the Notes or financial matters generally.
